Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL) Certificate Program

UCI Division of Continuing Education's TEFL Certificate Program will give you the qualifications and skills to teach in an international English language classroom and the opportunity to find the best teaching jobs abroad. This 11-week intensive program features University of California-approved curriculum taught by highly qualified teacher-trainers who have extensive experience living and teaching abroad. As part of a cohort program, you will experience an opportunity for personal growth and professional development as you learn side-by-side and get to know your colleagues—colleagues whom you can rely upon while you’re in the program, as well as call upon when you embark on your experience abroad.

By completing a TEFL Certificate program, those with limited or no teaching experience will gain the practical teaching skills and knowledge to lead an international English language classroom with confidence.

Teaching abroad will give you the opportunity to learn about different cultures, the chance to make money while traveling, and the reward of helping others learn English as a worldwide tool for business communication. Program grads also tell us how much they enjoy establishing great friendships with international people. The experience of teaching English abroad will also enhance your communication skills, self-confidence, and international knowledge. There is no better time to teach English abroad!

Why Teach English Abroad
Increase your professional abilities and earning potential and expand your world view.

- See the world – travel to the sights and places you’ve always dreamed of
- Immerse yourself in a new culture
- Build your resume through international experience
- Find many job opportunities and begin a rewarding career path in teaching English as a foreign language
- Make lifelong friendships and contacts
- Make a difference by helping others

The mission of the TEFL Certificate Program is to train and equip American teacher-trainees with practical teaching skills and cultural awareness to be able to successfully teach English abroad.

“I gained the skills and confidence I needed to secure the job I have now and succeed in my teaching career at an English conversation school in Japan. I thoroughly enjoy my work, love the life I have here in Japan, and will always be grateful to the staff and experts in this program.”

Wesley Christenson, TEFL Certificate Program Graduate

Teaching English as a Career

“Who knew that my one-year plan to live abroad would turn into over 3 years! I am still in Munich and teaching kindergarten. This year I have also picked up some private tutoring that I do on the side. I have made so many great friends in Germany and have gotten to see so much of Europe. I am still ever so thankful to UC Irvine Extension for teaching and preparing me so well.”

Liz Donnelly, TEFL Certificate Program Graduate
“Learning from experienced veteran teachers, as well as getting actual classroom experience, helped prepare me for my first time living abroad. The best part is that my experience at UCI TEFL never ends! Whenever I have a question or concern, the staff is more than willing to help me.”

Kiumars Vafai,
TEFL Certificate Program Graduate

“The TEFL program prepared me to be a professional teacher, to make lessons fun, and always push myself to be better. Without it, I wouldn’t have had the opportunity to teach in Vietnam for two and a half years and to discover that I really love teaching. Now I know it is what I want to do with my life.”
