LEARN FOR THE FUN OF IT: Connect with Vibrant, Like-Minded Adults
The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) has set the world standard for excellence in lifelong learning, and OLLI at UC Irvine is no exception! We are an organization of enthusiastic lifelong learners who continue cultivating our minds and enhancing life through educational experiences.

OLLI AT UC IRVINE: Mission and Values
OLLI at UCI is a diverse community of people aged 50+ who embrace lifelong learning through educational and social experiences. Our core values include Volunteerism, Respect, Integrity, Excellence, and Collaboration.

BENEFITS OF LIFELONG LEARNING!
Science has confirmed the benefits of lifelong learning for your brain and overall health.

- Mental stimulation is fundamental to your personal growth and feeling of well-being.
- Intellectual exploration is a workout for the brain – it sharpens and strengthens our memory.
- Social connection within our learning community creates new friends, develops shared interests, and enhances our joy of living.

WELCOME TO OLLI AT UC IRVINE
GREETINGS TO ALL,
Our Curriculum Teams have done an outstanding job in developing an exciting and interesting lineup of Classes and Special Events. As of catalog deadline there are 47 Classes and 12 Special Events. Prepare yourself to be engaged and absorbed in ideas from an impressive group of speakers. Allow yourself to be inspired. Most of all, take pride in our shared dedication to the power and pleasure of lifelong learning.

Look for announcements for additional classes or changes to the schedule in the KIT-Mail sent out each Monday via e-mail. This is an especially important communication for our members.

We need to bring our membership back to pre-pandemic levels with our goal being 500 members by June. More members mean more fun, more volunteers to share the workload, and most importantly, secures the future of our endowment from the Osher Foundation. Let us all make a concerted effort to enroll a friend or two for the Spring semester.

If you have let your membership lapse, please consider joining us for the Spring Term. We are following safety protocols and remote learning is an option. Our membership is our greatest asset and we miss you.

Give us your time – we will stimulate your mind.

Stay curious!

CLASS FORMATS - HYBRID CLASS OFFERINGS

In 2021 we moved toward hybrid learning to accommodate the varied needs of our members and to make learning more accessible. We have continued our hybrid model of learning and members can attend class in-person or online, whichever fits your comfort level and expectation. This fall, classes will continue to be offered both in-person and online. Choose from three formats categorized A, B/C, or D. Each course description will include a “Class Format” letter designation. Refer to the Class Format Legend below when selecting your classes.

CLASS FORMAT LEGEND:

A Classroom Only (Presenter & Audience attend in person; not recorded)

B/C Hybrid with Presenter In-Person or Remote (Audience attends in person or via Zoom) NOTE: Our presenters lecture from as far away as Egypt and we are excited to offer such expertise from around the world! Therefore, some instructors may lecture online via Zoom. No refunds for presenters that lecture remotely. Thank you for understanding.

D Zoom Only (Presenter and Audience attend via Zoom)

Most of our class lectures (unless otherwise indicated by the non-recording icon in the catalog) will be recorded and available to our members for later viewing through the OLLI Remote Learning Center (ORLC) secure website. If you miss a class - whether it be an in-person or Zoom class - you can watch a recording of the class lecture. Please allow 5-10 working days for the recording to be edited and uploaded to the ORLC.

AH 101 GETTING PERSONAL WITH SHAKESPEARE’S PLAYS

“All the world’s a stage” ... and Shakespeare the master. The group will read aloud the two plays to be performed at the 2024 New Swan Shakespeare Festival, Twelfth Night and Measure for Measure. Roles will be assigned by the facilitators. Class discussion will include historic context and select video clips. Indulge your secret passion for acting or enhance your appreciation of timeless theater and have fun! This class uses the Folger editions of the selected plays. Participants are responsible for purchasing book or e-book.

Please note: By enrolling in this class, you give permission for your email address to be shared with the Developers for the purpose of receiving class assignments.

Developers/Facilitators: Beth Mersch and Mitch Samuelson — two Shakespeare aficionados, who have led this group for several years.

Thursdays, February 15, 29, March 14, 28, April 11, 25, May 9, 23; 1:30 PM - 3:30 PM

Group / Max. 25 participants / Not Recorded

AH 102 WORDS WITHOUT BORDERS

This is an interactive adventure in reading and discussion of works by acclaimed short story writers from around the world. Volunteer class participants select a story from the text or choose a story that is available in PDF from the internet, develop questions, and lead the discussion. Guidance for story selection and discussion leadership will be provided. The textbook is “One World Two: A Second Global Anthology Of Short Stories” Edited by Ovo Adagha and Chris Brazier, available on Amazon.

Please note: By enrolling in this class, you give permission for your email address to be shared with the Developers for the purpose of receiving class assignments.

Presenters/Developers: Milly Lugo- Rios, retired Librarian. Yasmin Vali, published author, retired English teacher, retired Instructor UCI-DCE. Facilitator: Jeanne LaMar

AH 103 FILM AS A FORM OF LITERATURE

This four-class series is a fascinating journey into film as a form of literature. Participants will watch films on Netflix from the list provided and analyze these, as if critiquing a novel. Each participant will bring questions for discussion. Some topics for discussion are plot, social relevance, theme, symbol, setting, character analysis, actors and their acting, music, director, and the impact of worldviews on cinematic content.

Access to Netflix streaming is required as all films are chosen from this platform.

Please note: By enrolling in this class, you give permission for your email address to be shared with the Developers for the purpose of receiving class assignments.

Presenter/Developer: Yasmin Vali, published author, retired High School English teacher, retired Instructor UCI-DCE.

Group / Max. 50 participants / Not Recorded

AH 104 NEW RULES NEXT WEEK: The Art and Creative Process of Corita Kent

Corita Kent was among the internationally known “Pop Artists” of the mid-twentieth century. With a very different message from her contemporary, Andy Warhol, her art has strong themes of social activism, expansive spirituality, and moral centeredness. During her years as a nun with the Sisters of The Immaculate Heart of Mary (now the ecumenical Immaculate Heart Community), Corita Kent developed a creative educational model and process that resulted in “new rules next week.” This course will explore her art and those rules.

Presenter: Rod Stephens is a member of the Immaculate Heart Community, a graphic designer and a member of the Inaugural Board of the Corita Art Center, Los Angeles.

Developer: Kelly Steenhoven

Facilitators: Bill Fouts and Susan Fouts

Thursday, February 22; 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

AH 105 GIANTS OF THE GREAT AMERICAN SONGBOOK

The Great American Songbook is the loosely defined canon of significant 20th-century American jazz standards, popular songs, and movie and Broadway tunes. From the early 1900s to the 1950s, the world was singing lyrics and humming melodies that will still be sung or hummed years from now. This course will cover the contributions of eight of the era’s most important songwriters: Arlen, Berlin, Carmichael, Gershwin, Kern, Mercer, Porter and Rodgers. Some wrote music, some wrote lyrics, and some wrote both, but all wrote songs that helped shape American popular culture and spread its societal values worldwide.

Feel free to hum along.

Presenter/Developer: Steve Weinstein, B.A. in English, minor in music, University of Pittsburgh.

Facilitators: Lonnie Horn and Sherri Nussbaum

Fridays, February 23, March 1, 8, 15; 1:30 PM - 4:00 PM

(Please note the extended lecture time for this course.)
AH 106  AUTHOR SPOTLIGHT:

Barbara Legere - Talk to Me, I am Grieving

Barbara Legere is an Orange County author and advocate for those experiencing grief of a loved one. Her recent book, Talk to Me, I’m Grieving (2023) shatters contemporary views about how a grieving person actually behaves provides compassionate insight on verbal tools that help, and gives everyone suggestions on what to avoid. She speaks openly in a warm and personable style about the challenges of writing, her work as a trauma advocate and how writing this book and her prior one (Keven’s Choice), led her to understand that “grief is love”.

Presenter: Barbara Legere, Author/OC activist, with Solace for Hope and Trauma Intervention Program.

Developer: Jeanne LaMar

Facilitators: Jeanne LaMar and Yasmin Vali

Friday, April 5; 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

AH 114 MILTON BERLE AND THE BIRTH OF THE “GOLDEN AGE OF TELEVISION”

Although the invention of television predates World War II, the TV industry of today began in the post war era known as the “Golden Age of Television” (1948-1959). Even though the number of television stations across the country increased slowly, TV set sales were miniscule. Television needed a reason to watch. One program, Milton Berle’s “Texaco Star Theater” on NBC, catapulted television into the industry recognized today. This class will tell that story.

Developer/Presenter: Michelle Stanton, Ph.D., is a former television network news producer and a Mass Communications professor in the Cal State University system.

Facilitators: Yasmin Vali and Meredith Cheston

Friday, April 12; 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM (Morning Mingle: 9:30 AM)

AH 115 BOWERS MUSEUM COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS AND SPECIAL EXHIBITION:

Asian Comics and Six Stories from the Bowers

The Bowers Museum Docent will present “Community Connections”, a program which describes the history, permanent galleries, and events at the Bowers Museum in Santa Ana. This presentation showcases the Bowers’ ongoing programs and partnerships offered for residents of Orange County and beyond. Also, it offers a brief description of the temporary exhibition, Asian Comics: Evolution of an Art Form.

The second half of the program is “Six Stories from the Bowers”. Enjoy six of the Museum’s permanent galleries and tour the world as we explore six unique artifacts from the Museum’s collection.

Presenter: Bowers Museum Docent

AH 117 THE ART OF INFORMATION: THE WORK OF EDWARD TUFTS

Graphs, charts, diagrams and other visual presentations are ubiquitous in our Information Age, but a poor data design can lead to confusion instead of comprehension. Edward Tufte, a professor of political science, statistics, and computer science, but also an artist and sculptor, broke new ground in the field of data visualization with his 1997 book, The Visual Display of Quantitative Information, followed by four more acclaimed works on data visualization concepts. The class will explore the data design principles developed by Tufte and how they can help users understand and critique visual representations of complex data.

Developer/Presenter: Susan Fouts, OLLI Member, Retired Financial and Data Analyst for the U.S. Department of Agriculture for 20 years.

Facilitator: Bill Fouts

SUPERMASSIVE BLACK HOLES IN THE HEART OF GALAXY MERGERS

Supermassive black holes are a driving force of galaxy evolution. Vivian U will share her observer’s perspective of the phenomena surrounding black holes and how they influence galactic formation. This discussion will help us understand how astronomers are interpreting the secrets revealed in recent images. Professor U was recently featured in the PBS Nova James Webb Space Telescope (JWST) episode “New Eye on the Universe.”

Presenter: Vivian U, Ph.D., Observational Extragalactic Astronomer, UCI
Developers: Dennis Silverman, Ph.D., OLLI STEM Committee and Marj Besemer
Monday, May 6; 1:30 PM - 3:30 PM

THE SCIENCE OF SLEEP

Sleep problems affect nearly everyone at some time in their life. This class will cover clinical disorders and solutions as well as theoretical considerations, such as why we sleep and the manipulation of dreams. Treatment of obstructive sleep apnea by Upper Airway Stimulation therapy as an implantable alternative to CPAP will be discussed. Experimental manipulation of dreaming to improve patient health is currently of major interest in the form of targeted dream incubation (TDI) will be explored.

Presenter/Developer: Vern Roohk, Ph.D., Physiology and Biochemistry, UC Davis, and OLLI STEM Committee
Tuesday, May 7; 1:30 PM - 3:30 PM

SS 307 PRISONPANDEMIC: BUILDING AN ARCHIVE OF INCARCERATED VOICES DURING COVID-19

California’s San Quentin Prison was the epicenter of one of the largest COVID-19 outbreaks in the United States; 28 people housed there ultimately died of COVID-19. People in U.S. prisons in 2020 were five times as likely to get COVID-19 and three times as likely to die from COVID-19 as non-incarcerated people. UCI’s PrisonPandemic project gives a voice to these numbers; the project has collected thousands of incarcerated people’s stories of struggling to survive in prison during a global pandemic.

Presenter: Keramet Reiter, Ph.D. earned her degree at the University of California, Berkeley, Department of Jurisprudence & Social Policy. She is Professor, Department of Criminology, Law & Society in the School of Law at UC Irvine.

SS 309 U.S. – CHINA RELATIONS

Escalating tensions in recent years have shifted U.S.-China relations from decades of constructive engagement to today’s strategic rivalry. This class starts with a historical perspective, presents an overview of China today, and then delves into the complex issues that drive U.S.-China dynamics. To preserve both countries’ security and the world’s stability, the two governments need to manage competition, emphasize diplomacy, rebuild trust and find ways to work together on pressing 21st century global problems. (This lecture is an updated version of the course presented in September 2022 and March 2023.)

Presenter: Amy Chen, U.S.-China strategic consultant and former tech attorney

Developer/Facilitator: Debbie Rubin

SS 310
ETHNICITIES AND THEIR INFLUENCE: LATINA PROFESSIONALS
Where do Latinas work and why do they work in those jobs? What are race relations like in their workplaces? This course answers these questions and explores the experiences of college-educated Latinas who are making inroads into professional fields. We will also explore the diversity within the Latina experience and how this impacts their workplace climate, focusing on those working in education and medicine.

Presenter: Glenda Flores, Associate Professor of Chicano/Latino Studies at UC Irvine. Her research focuses on the social mobility patterns of Latinos/Latinas into the middle class, their workplace experiences in the white-collar world, and how Latinx cultures emerge in their fields. She is a co-principal investigator of a National Science Foundation project seeking to improve STEM success among underrepresented students.

Developer/Facilitator: Juan Salcedo

SS 311
TRUTH DECAY
“Truth Decay*” is the diminishing role of facts and analysis in American public life. This phenomenon has taken hold over the last two decades, eroding civil discourse, causing political paralysis, and leading to general uncertainty around what’s true and what isn’t. At the individual level, the diminishing role of facts can erode public trust in institutions and feed deepening political and social polarizations that weaken the civil discourse that’s required for a healthy democracy, thus contributing to alienation and disengagement. Learn how to identify Truth Decay when you see and hear it.

*Rand Corporation term

Presenter: Trudy Josephson, an OLLI member and retired professional speaker on women’s health education; representing the League of Women Voters, Orange Coast. The League does not support or oppose candidates or political parties. It does encourage informed and active participation in government, works to increase understanding of major public policy issues and influences public policy through education and advocacy.

SS 312
THE 2024 U.S. ELECTIONS: WHERE ARE WE? WHAT CAN WE EXPECT IN THE FALL?
This course will reflect on the state of the 2024 presidential campaign. Assessing the lessons learned from the party primaries, we can offer some prognostication and expectations of the general election races. The focus will not just be the Presidential race, but include key Senate races and the battle for control of the House of Representatives. We will also look at the early polling and voter registration data to get a sense of how different electorates are being engaged or disengaged by the candidates, the parties, and the issues.

Presenter: Louis DeSipio, Ph.D., Professor of Political Science and Chicano/Latino Studies, University of California, Irvine. He is a prolific writer on Latino influences on 21st Century American politics. He is past-President of the Western Political Science Association.

Developer/Facilitator: Juan Salcedo

SPECIAL EVENTS AND TRIPS
YOU DO NOT NEED TO BE AN OLLI MEMBER TO ATTEND OUR SPECIAL EVENTS/TRIPS!

Non-OLLI members are welcome but must register by phone at 949-824-5414.

Dates and venues are confirmed at time of publication, but an event may be cancelled at any time due to reasons outside of OLLI’s control. The entire cost will be refunded if an event is cancelled for these reasons.

Special Event Refund/cancellation Policy

- Refunds for events and trips (less a $15 administration fee) can be made only if:
  - The trip is sold out.
  - The facilitatory can find a replacement from the waitlist.
  - AND you cancel at least two weeks in advance.
- OLLI reserves the right to cancel an event or trip at its discretion and in that case, those enrolled will receive a full refund. Sorry, there are no refunds to UCI performances.
- The price of the Special Events/Trips includes a contribution to OLLI at UCI.

Bus Trips

- Please bring the completed UCI Liability Waiver and Emergency Contact forms. The forms will be emailed to all enrollees.

Member Responsibility for Special Events/Trips

- Notify the event facilitator as soon as you know you cannot attend a trip or event; many times, we have a waitlist.
- If you use a wheelchair or require other assistance, please notify the event facilitator or OLLI office at least two weeks prior to the trip.

OLLI Responsibility for Special Events/Trips

- OLLI will include information about the difficulty level of the trip (such as long-distance walking, uneven or inclined surfaces, or stairs in the course description, when applicable).
- If, while on the trip, the facilitator feels that you cannot safely continue, you will be asked to wait in a safe location for the group.
- OLLI will notify enrollees if a Special Event is cancelled or if the location, time, or other detail have changed. A notice will be sent via email and in the weekly KIT Mail.

BUS DEPARTURE LOCATION

Unless indicated otherwise, buses depart from the Irvine Train Station (see map on page 39), directly across from the entrance to the parking garage and between the flag poles and the taxi signs.
SE 401  YAKULT YOGURT FACTORY TOUR
There are good bacteria and the bad kind. Probiotics are the friendly stuff with a long history in different forms. The crew at the Yakult Factory is eager to explain the difference and how they make their own brand of probiotic drink in what may be the fastest growing category of nutritional supplements. SE 406  UCI ARCHITECTURAL WALKING TOUR

Welcome to a guided tour of the beautiful and uniquely designed campus of the University of California at Irvine. Wide-open spaces and 26-acre Aldrich Park with surrounding roadway were planned from the beginning to set UCI apart from traditional universities. Most of the undergraduate schools are along this roadway for easy student navigation. Plazas connect each school to one another and to Aldrich Park at the heart of the campus. Look for the Infinity Fountain and the Sculpture Garden at Humanities Plaza celebrating notable Chinese philosophers. Our guide Matt Deines, Principal Physical Planner of Campus Planning and Sustainability, knows green and will tell how UCI has successfully implemented a roadmap for future building.

OLLI REMOTE LEARNING CENTER
Watch livestreamed and pre-recorded class lectures from the comfort of your home on Zoom. Go to olli.ce.uci.edu to log in.

KIT (KEEP IN TOUCH) MAIL
Look for it in your email inbox on Monday morning. This weekly e-mail, sent to all members, with late-breaking news such as course venue or time changes, availability in courses and events, and committee announcements.

THE OUTLOOK
The first week of each month you will receive an e-mailed newsletter featuring the president’s message, minutes from board meetings, and other current OLLI news as well as UCI events OLLI members can attend.

FACEBOOK: www.facebook.com/UCIrvineOLLI
Like our page and join our OLLI group. Weekly updates on classes and special events on the calendar.

KEEP UP WITH CLASS CHANGES
Changes to classes can occur unexpectedly. When changes occur after the catalog is printed, they are noted in the weekly KIT Mail and Outlook Newsletter. View the most current class schedules in your weekly KIT Mail sent on Monday mornings. If you'd like to receive the weekly KIT Mail or Outlook Newsletters, email us at: olli@uci.edu.

HELP SPREAD THE WORD!
We’ll be glad to send a catalog to your friends and family. Send the recipient’s name and mailing address by email to: olli@uci.edu.

QUESTIONS?
Call us at 949-451-1403 or e-mail us at olli@uci.edu.
Let us know if you change your e-mail address, so you don’t miss any important information! Send changes to olli@uci.edu. Not getting our weekly KIT Mail or Outlook Newsletter? Check your spam or junk mail folder and allow olli@uci.edu into your inbox.

PLEASE NOTE:
❙ We occasionally use photos of OLLI classes and events on our website, Facebook page, and other materials. Let us know if you do not want your image used.
❙ The views and opinions expressed in our courses are those of the presenters and do not reflect the views of OLLI at UCI.
PARKING

Ample free parking is available on the upper levels of the adjacent parking structure with elevator or stairway access to the first floor. Vehicles that display a valid handicapped placard may park in the 90-minute spaces on the first floor of the parking garage as well as in the marked handicapped spaces (you will be ticketed by the Irvine Police without a valid placard).

OLLI AT UCI SPRING OPEN HOUSE
(FOR PROSPECTIVE MEMBERS)

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 2024
10:00 AM - 11:30 AM

The OLLI Open House is an opportunity to learn more about the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at UCI join or renew membership, and much more. It is a place to make connections with people who share the love of learning. The open house provides a showcase for classes and special interest groups coming in the Spring term. A brief presentation will begin at 10:30 AM. Join us for coffee and pastries before hand.

THE OLLI AT UCI PROGRAM!

Join with other intellectually curious active adults who value lifelong learning as we explore our world:

- Courses are offered in the Fall and Spring Semesters, plus a short Summer Session.
- Over 40 inspired courses in the disciplines of Arts & Humanities (AH), Science, Technology, Engineering, & Mathematics (SC), and Social Science (SS) – EVERY SEMESTER!
- Typical class format: 1-6 lectures per course with 2-hour lectures per course each week.
- Members take as many classes as they wish for one price and parking is FREE!
- Membership includes online access to the OLLI library of over 700 recorded class lectures.
- Courses are developed and presented by world class UCI researchers, professors, and community experts.
- Special Events each semester for members and non-members for an additional per-event fee.
- Access to UC Irvine library, cultural events, and performances for free or for nominal fees.

STAY CURIOUS

Curiosity should never retire. As a member of OLLI, you can experience learning adventures – no tests, no homework. Learning for the fun of it! Stay Curious!

OLLI AT UCI COVID-19 POLICY

At the direction of the University of California, and when accessing campus facilities at any UC location beginning with the Fall 2021 semester, OLLI members could be required to:

- Provide proof of COVID-19 vaccination
- Cover the face with a mask
- Maintain physical distance from other members

For the most updated information, visit www.uci.edu/coronavirus.

No refunds on OLLI Membership fees if students are unable to meet the University of California policy on COVID-19 vaccination.

OLLI at UCI HISTORY

OSHER LIFELONG LEARNING INSTITUTE at UC IRVINE! In 1997, a small group of mature learners, under the leadership of Rose Moldave, Rayna Zeidenberg, Joan Schwartz, and Sally Schwartz, collaborated with the University of California, Irvine, to form the Academy of Lifelong Learning. Six years later, with an initial grant from the Osher Foundation, the Academy became part of the Osher Lifelong Learning network. In 2006, the Foundation presented an endowment to the university on our behalf. OLLI at UCI is part of the University of California at Irvine Division of Continuing Education and is one of 125 Osher Lifelong Learning centers serving 170,000 members across the nation.
Share Your Expertise and Experience!
Inspire others to learn and explore!
Develop innovative and exciting courses!
Teach without administrative burdens!
Engage with peers and share interests!

OLLI is a volunteer, member-driven organization of enthusiastic lifelong learners. With vibrant minds and unbounded curiosity, we discover, share, and build social connections with like-minded individuals in a rich learning culture. We hold lectures, study groups, excursions, and events that build a sense of community and camaraderie among our members. There are no tests and no grades. It is learning solely for the joy of learning.

We are always interested in adding new presenters. What is your passion?

As a presenter, you will be rewarded with extensive positive feedback and generous “aha!” moments. Our volunteer presenters and discussion group leaders are the heart and soul of our organization, and we appreciate your time and expertise!

EMPOWERING MIND AND SPIRIT THROUGH LIFELONG LEARNING!

CLASS FORMAT (customized to fit your presentation):
- Weekdays | 10:00 am - Noon or 1:30 - 3:30 PM
- Single lecture | 2 hours
- Courses | 2-4 weeks | 2-hour session/week
- Lecture or course combined with a local field trip

OLLI SEMESTERS
- Fall: September – January
- Spring: February – June
- Summer: July – August

Course proposals are welcome throughout the year. Scheduling takes place approximately six months before the course delivery date.

What is the OLLI Remote Learning Center (ORLC)?
The OLLI Remote Learning Center (ORLC) is an online portal for members to view livestreamed classes as well as viewing over 700 pre-recorded class lectures in the Video Library.

How do I access and view online class presentations?
New Members will be given access to the ORLC 24 hours after they register and pay their semesters fees or the week prior to the start of the semester. An account is required to use the ORLC. All members will receive a member number that starts with an “M.” If you have not received your membership number, contact the OLLI office at: olli@uci.edu.

When can I create my account for the Remote Learning Center?
You may create your account at any point after becoming a member of the OLLI at UCI program. Please note that New Members will be given access to the ORLC 24 hours after registration or the week prior to the start of the semester.

How do I create a Remote Learning Center account?
24 hours after you register and pay the semester fees, you can create your account online:

1. Send an email to the OLLI office at olli@uci.edu or call 949-451-1403 to request your Membership ID number. (This number begins with the letter 'M')
2. Once you have your Membership ID number, go to: olli.ce.uci.edu, click New User, and Register.
3. Complete the online form to create your account. (Note: the “Video Password” is your own personal password. Please save this in your records.)

If you are a returning member and already have an account, Do Not create a new account.

Can I log into the Remote Learning Center using my web account credentials?
No. The web account is only used to pay for a membership and to register for classes through our website.

Need additional assistance creating your OLLI Remote Learning Center account?
Go to our website at ce.uci.edu/olli and click on Remote Learning Center located in the blue bar across the top of the web page to find and view videos and instructional documentation on how to create your account. More questions or need further assistance? Contact the OLLI office, by email olli@uci.edu, Monday through Friday, 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM.

OLLI REMOTE LEARNING CENTER (ORLC) CLASS ETIQUETTE GUIDELINES

When attending a live streamed class using the OLLI Remote Learning Center, you are in a virtual classroom and should conduct yourself as you would in a real classroom. Use these guidelines to make your experience comfortable and enjoyable:

YOU ARE ON A LIVE CAMERA
• Focus on the screen or camera, not on your phone or other device • Do not eat, drink, or wander around • Consider what others see behind you; consider using a virtual background or turning off your video • Keep interruptions to a minimum • Put your question in “CHAT” for the moderator to relay to the presenter • Login at least five minutes before class starts to allow for any last-minute adjustments.

YOU ARE ON A LIVE MICROPHONE
• Mute yourself when listening • Avoid side conversations • Eliminate background noise to the extent possible, including phones, TV, radio, pets • Put your question in “CHAT” for the moderator to relay to the presenter.
BRIDGE WITH OLLI
Now is a perfect time to learn and play bridge online, at home any time of day. Check out “Bridge base Online” at www.bridgebase.com. A fun and easy way to learn this game. Contact Janie Matlaf at jmatlaf@gmail.com.

FORE!
OLLI at UCI has an exciting new opportunity to gather GOLFERS who are interested in forming new friendships and playing local courses on a regular basis. Fore! welcomes men and women of all skill levels who love the game and the camaraderie which the game facilitates. Contact Harry Field by email at: hbf214@yahoo.com.

GASTRONOMERS
For these members, life is all about food, dining out (not curbside or take out), cooking and wine. Tickle your tastebuds with monthly ventures into unknown epicurean delights! Contact and join the club at the website at: olligastronomers.com.

MAH JONGG
Mah Jongg is a popular Chinese game played, usually by four people, with 136 or 144 rectangular pieces called tiles. The object is to collect winning sets of these tiles, as in card games such as gin rummy. Contact the OLLI office if you would like to lead this group: olli@uci.edu.

MOVIE TALK
Interested in movies – new or classic? Easy to participate by watching your at-home screen. What have you seen lately? Join the conversation. Contact Jessie Tromberg at jessietromberg@icloud.com.

SPANISH CLUB
Weekly gatherings to learn and practice conversational Spanish. Contact Deborah Silverstein at sjsdns7@verizon.net.
